NEWS RELEASE

Douglas County Selects Bradley Hurley as Assistant County Manager

Minden, NV- After a public meet-and-greet on August 21, 2017 and a one on one interview with County Manager Larry Werner, the position of Assistant County Manager has been offered to Bradley Hurley at the salary of $105,000.

Bradley Hurley, a resident of the Topaz Lake area, is currently the information technology officer for the Marine Corps Mountain Warfare Training Center located at Bridgeport, California. Bradley joined the training center team in 2010 and was accepted for his present position December 22, 2013.

“Bradley will bring a dynamic skill set to the Douglas County organization,” said County Manager Larry Werner. “We are excited about the Assistant County Manager position and how the new role will contribute to providing public services to the people of Douglas County.”

Bradley brings a distinguished career highlighted with over 27 years of experience in leading high performance operational work environments with proven results. Recognized as a high-potential administrator, he is a seasoned leader with a reputation for leading change, instituting technology modernization initiatives, building diverse project teams, and strategic campaign planning.

Bradley brings the executive core qualifications focused on business acumen, building coalitions and seeks to improve innovation and efficiency to further the strategic objectives of the organization, the customers, and stakeholders.

Bradley is a veteran of the United States Marine Corps, he served honorably for 20 years and was retired from service in 2009. During his career, Bradley was the recipient of the Meritorious Service Medal, the Navy Accommodation Medal with second award, the Navy Achievement Medal with forth award for outstanding meritorious service and performance of duty.

Bradley holds a Bachelor of Science Degree in Multidisciplinary Studies from Grantham University. He is currently studying at Michigan State University’s Eli Broad College of Business and is on track to receive a Master of Science Degree in Leadership, Management and Strategy in the fall of 2018. He is an alumnus of the Graduate School Executive Potential Program which he completed in June 2013.

Previously the Assistant County Manager and Chief Financial Officer was a dual role. The Douglas County Commissioners added the new position which separated the two roles into the 2017/2018 fiscal year budget.
